

April 1, 1974

PRESIDENT: All provisions of law relative to procedure having been complied with, the question is, 'Shall the bill pass with the emergency clause attached?' This requires 33 votes. Have you all voted? Clerk will record.

CLERK: Voting aye 34, voting no 10, not voting 5. (Printed on page 1420 of Journal)

PRESIDENT: The bill is passed. Senator Marsh.

SENATOR MARSH: My machine is not working. I have punched my machine.

PRESIDENT: How did you vote Senator Marsh.

SENATOR MARSH: I voted aye.

PRESIDENT: All right, record Senator Marsh voting aye.

SENATOR MARSH: I voted aye.

CLERK: 34 ayes, 10 nays, 5 not voting.

PRESIDENT: All right, the Clerk is instructed to find out why Senator Marsh machine is not working. The bill is passed with the Emergency Clause attached. Now, in accordance with Senator Carpenter's motion to suspend the rules, we will go directly to Select File. LB875. Yes, Senator Kremer.

SENATOR KREMER: Mr. Chairman, a correction to the Chair.

PRESIDENT: Yes.

SENATOR KREMER: I believe I had a motion on the desk. Prior to the one made by Senator Carpenter. His motion was a two pronged motion. One was that we take up only the two bills on Final Reading and then the second part of the motion was to go directly to Select File. And I had a motion on the desk to change that a little bit. Now, my question is, is my motion in order or not?

PRESIDENT: Mr. Clerk, in what order did the motions come to your desk.

CLERK: Well, I had Senator Kremer's before I convened, Mr. President. Except right now, I can't find it.

PRESIDENT: Well, your motion then, Senator Kremer, was to go to directly from Final Reading to General File is that correct.

CLERK: Just for two bills. His motion was to unanimous consent to take up the consideration of two bills on General File.

PRESIDENT: Well, we have already suspended the rules. However since the Clerk mislaid your motion. I feel that with the concurrence of Senator Carpenter, we should consider his motion. Senator, to get it settled.

SENATOR CARPENTER: I think the Chair's position is right.

PRESIDENT: All right, now the Clerk will read Senator's Kremer's motion. It is true we have suspended the rules to go to Select
